Science	In science this week we will be identifying different habitats, including microhabitats.
Geography	In geography this week we will be using fieldwork to identify human and physical features around our school and question - does it support plant life?
PSHE	In PSHE this week, we will be discussing how to say no to negative behaviour and how to be a good friend.
RE	In RE this week, we will discuss how stories from The Bible impact how Christians live their lives.
